1998 U.S. Catholic Bishops "Sharing Social Teachings, Challenges and Directions"

This presentation is based on the social teachings of the Catholic Church, and the seven social sins that are connected to the teachings. Each social teaching will be presented as documented by the church and presented by Father McKenna, then there will be a five (5) minute presentation on the sin that is connected to the teaching. Social teachings and sins are complicated issues, and cannot be fully discussed in one evening. If you have an interest in learning more, we can run a series on this subject. We at Holy Family wish to introduce you to an issue that is important to our Catholic values and teachings of the church.

Please bring soup, bread, crackers or butter to share.

Q. So does that mean that when we give something up for Lent, such as candy, we can have it on Sundays?

A. Apart from the prescribed days of fast and abstinence on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, and the days of abstinence every Friday of Lent, Catholics have traditionally chosen additional penitential practices for the whole Time of Lent. These practices are disciplinary in nature and often more effective if they are continuous, i.e., kept on Sundays as well. That being said, such practices are not regulated by the Church, but by individual conscience.
