Next weekend, September 12 & 13th,
the annual appeal for the Kenya School Project will begin. You will be receiving a letter and newsletter in the mail.

Through your past generosity, this ministry of Holy Family Parish has been able to establish four classrooms and a science laboratory for the students of St. Josephine Bakhita Secondary School.

Once again, we ask for your prayers and financial support. One hundred percent of your donation will help to begin Phase V of the project – to build a school library for the students, future students and villagers of Gitare, Kenya.

We invite you to visit the village, students and St. Josephine Bakhita School at www.hfccstjosephine.org to see how your donations are helping to foster an education for those in need.

Questions Catholics ask

WHAT IS THE LECTIONARY?

JESUS' opening of a deaf man's ear refers to the phrase from the Book of Isaiah about how the Messiah will be the one through whom "the ears of the deaf [will] be cleared." What puts these two passages side-by-side in the readings is known as the lectionary.

Each lectionary book organizes scripture readings according to the feasts and seasons of the church year. The Sunday lectionary contains three years' worth of readings: Matthew's gospel in Cycle A with Old Testament passages chosen to parallel its themes; Mark's gospel in Cycle B—although Mark is so short that John's gospel supplements the year; and Luke's gospel in Cycle C.

In between the Old Testament and gospel readings on Sundays, an additional New Testament passage is selected from a letter of Saint Paul or another apostle. During the Easter season a reading from the Acts of the Apostles or the Book of Revelation replaces the Old Testament reading.

There's also a daily lectionary that runs in a two-year cycle pairing gospel passages with continuous readings from Old or New Testament books. An additional lectionary has passages suitable for baptisms, weddings, funerals, and other occasions.
