A Community Built On Faith - Ready To Serve

Congratulations
Class of 2008!

Before you were even formed, God knew you.
While in your Mother's womb, God named you.
At your birth, God's breath filled you with life.
Today we celebrate what you have become at this moment in time. And so we pray,

God of our beginnings,
we thank you for the gifts of these graduates,
their excitement, their awesome wonder and curiosity,
their own speech and encouraging words.
Their contributions have blessed and challenged us,
and we have become a richer
and more diverse community because of them.

As they step forward into the world that awaits, comfort their fears with the full knowledge of Your Divine Presence.
Strengthen their resolve to walk in the footsteps of Jesus as modern-day disciples in a world that needs their spirit.

Guide their feet as they move through life,
protecting them from the pitfalls of darkness
while they help to lead the future generations into the warmth and promise of your light.

We ask this blessing upon each of them, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

AMEN!

Who is St. Teresa of Avila? A mystic, a Carmelite sister, a writer and a witness to the power of Jesus in life, this woman is also a Doctor of the Church. Come to St. Bernard's on June 20th and learn more about her. Go to www.stbernards.edu and click on "Upcoming Events" for more information.

LIBRARY CORNER - Do you prefer to read fiction? Try Father Joseph Girzone's best-selling novel, Joshua or its sequel Joshua and the children. Joshua is actually Jesus living in the modern world! These are simple, moving, and inspirational parables presented in an uncomplicated fashion.

"WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT" Come to Faith and Foam on June 11, 7-8:30pm at the Miller House, Perkinsville. Look at all the changes we experience: an endless war in Iraq; in Feb, 2009 my television antennae won't be any good; earthquake in China; New Orleans will never completely recover; our children don't live near us; social security isn't what it used to be. * * * We have this energy thing happening (gasoline over $4.00 a gallon), the economy could fail tomorrow (literally), we still don't get it re: There still are dictators and the elected leaders of "free" countries are no princes/princesses either. We still don't know how to honor/raise our kids (one-half of children are now born into single parent homes -what's up with that?). * * * If there is a designed plan, why doesn't God just come down and tell us about it already? Why can't we get it? Why are we running around like mice in a maze if God has all the answers? It's not that all of these changes are bad but many of us are getting tired of it all.

Thank you to all those who sent cards, had warm thoughts, and the abundant prayers said for the health and recovery of Deacon Dan Slattery and Fr. Mike.

Thanks to Bernie Beaupre for the repairs to some ceiling tiles in St. Joseph's. We 'look up to you!'

The Wayland-Cohocton Humanitarian Club is asking for donations for the Water for Sudan project. For every $5.00 donation, they are giving a gift of appreciation -- a limited edition, signed print of a waterscape by WCCS teacher & artist, Betsy Hoefen.

Water for Sudan is a non-profit group raising funds to dig wells in the Sudan to provide a perpetual supply of safe, clean water. Donations can be given to Sally Leeson or any Humanitarian Club member. Someone will have prints of the waterscape in the back of our churches over the next few weeks.

'CHOOSING TO FORGIVE' AN INTERFAITH RELIGION SPECIAL TO AIR SUNDAY, JUNE 8, ON SOME CBS AFFILIATES

Choosing to Forgive presents the idea of forgiveness from both a religious and a scientific point of view. Several major faiths teach we must forgive those who do us wrong. In recent years, the subject has interested psychologists who have studied it as a potentially effective means of getting past wrongs and injustices.

This special presentation is produced in cooperation with the Interfaith Broadcasting Commission (IBC), including the National Council of Churches, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), a consortium of Jewish organizations and the Islamic Society of North America.

The broadcast features Robert Enright, Ph.D., author and professor of psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, who has championed the cause of forgiveness therapy as a scientific tool. He and his wife have introduced forgiveness education into the curricula of elementary schools (the first in Belfast, Northern Ireland; and then Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin) as a way of training children to cope peacefully with stress and challenge.

The broadcast also includes interviews with several individuals who have moved successfully in life despite terrifying experiences. Some have done so through an act of faith and others have had therapy.

Lynn McGuinn and Talat Hamdani lost loved ones in the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center; Eric Wurzel, whose mother deserted him as a child, became addicted to drugs and alcohol for 30 years and was able to forgive himself and his family; Rev. Walt Everett, whose son was murdered in 1987, befriended the killer over time and the two have appeared together to tell their stories and speak about forgiveness; Ada Wolf's son was murdered by an off-duty airman in 1965, and yet grew over time to forgive and admire the killer; and Grace Roidt suffered for more than 30 years before talking to forgiveness therapists about her dysfunctional family and an older brother who raped her. Grace was able to get past the crimes of her youth with the help of Suzanne Freedman, Ph.D., now an associate professor at the University of Northern Iowa, who convinced her to try.

The special also includes a visit to St. James Catholic School in Madison, to see first graders learn the basic steps in forgiveness. The program hopes to aid them in choosing to forgive throughout their lives.

Choosing to Forgive, an interfaith religion special on the meaning and practice of forgiveness, will be broadcast Sunday, June 8 on CBS. For exact airing time check your local station. CBS Affiliate WROC-TV in Rochester apparently is not airing this television special.
